PERSONAL.

Mrs. Belva A. Lockwood returned to Washington last evening.

Willard Carson Davis, is visiting Mr. J. D. Henderson.

Patry Brown alias Napoleon (old), had a hearing before Justice Tolan yesterday afternoon on the charge of stealing a pair of shoes from F. L. Lewis store on Monday night. He was committed for the action of the grand jury.

The library society, of M. Pleasant, will hold its next meeting on Thursday evening, the 11th inst. at the residence of Mr. John Diller, president of the society. The subject for discussion will be "What is the better source of knowledge—reading or traveling."

The case of State vs. Goble Kraft, Henry Kramer and John Kraft, was concluded yesterday in a verdict of guilty against Mrs. Kraft and the verdict against the two parties named. It is probable that Casey will be granted a new trial.

The "snow, sleet and beauty" who broke that trick?

Messrs. George W. Myers and Wm. Hooper, of Edinburg, Va., are in the city.

It is estimated that since Mrs. Lockwood's appearance in our court yesterday and the day before, that just thirteen hundred and forty-seven men in this city have informed their husbands that they are entirely independent of them, there! And that they could support themselves if necessary. They would be wrong; there none.
